

Chapter Sixteen:

1. Vocabulary: Adverbs

Adverbs answer these three questions about the verbs, adjectives and other adverbs they describe: how, when, where.

- a) Choose five adverbs.
  - b) Locate the word they are describing.
  - c) Decide which question they answer.
- e.g.    a) cautiously (adverb)
          b) sat (the verb the adverb is describing)
          c) how (describing how she sat)

reluctantly    angrily    bitterly    desperately    badly    quickly    quietly    briskly    dubiously

2. Post Accident Questions

Angeline's serious injury may change everything. Record four of the questions she has now. Which one do you think is the most important? Why?

3. Facing Stephen

Angeline could not bear him to see her crippled or see the contempt in his eyes for what she had done. You are the author. Write a scene that shows how Stephen might react to the changes in Angeline's life. Use dialogue to bring your words to life.

4. Chapter Endings

"She was with child." Who could resist finding out what happens to Angeline? Author, Karleen Bradford, creates incredible suspense with the last sentences in each chapter.

- a) Reread them.
- b) Record your five favourites.
- c) Analyze what makes them so effective.
