

Chapter Five

1. Vocabulary: Sick to her Soul

A thesaurus is an important writing tool. In just this chapter, the author used more than twenty words to describe Angeline's feelings. Use a thesaurus to find another word for:

anguish bitter despair confused frustration overwhelm resent suspicious

2. A Narrow Escape

A First Person Anecdote:

- a) Jot down the most important points from, "She winced now at the memory..." to "...darkness closed in upon her."
- b) Turn them into an oral tale, as if they happened to you.
- c) Tape your drafts until it is the way you want it.
- d) Tell your story to another student.
- e) Listen to their anecdote.
- f) Compare your interpretations.

3. Setting

Angeline enjoys drawing. Choose to depict the riverbank, the harem or the market in:

- a) A drawing OR
- b) Two paragraphs full of word pictures.

4. An Enemy in the Harem

Why do you think Samah took such an instant dislike of Angeline?

List three ways this servant abused the newest slave.